Thank you for your interest in membership with the Institute of Public Accountants (IPA).

The IPA has a passion for small business. More than 75 per cent of our members are either serving small business or are small business in their own right.

The IPA is a global accounting association that is dedicated to drive benefits and value for its members. We pride ourselves on providing members with support that is flexible, responsive and solutions focused.

The IPA membership will give you high level recognition in the accounting profession, keep you up to date on technical issues and ensure your concerns are voiced with government and key industry sectors.

Things you need to know

- The minimum qualification for admission is an Australian Diploma of Accounting. We also offer admission to statutory registration holders with the Tax Practitioners Board (TPB) or/and Australian Securities & Investments Commission (ASIC) and to current members of an International Federation of Accountants (IFAC) Member level body (see www.ifac.org/about-ifac/membership/member-organizations-and-country-profiles).
- If you offer or plan to offer professional accounting and related services to the public for a fee, you may also need to apply for a practicing certificate with your membership application. This includes you being a principal, director, partner, shareholder or owner of a business, billing under your own ABN, or acting in a statutory capacity such as an SMSF auditor. If you are a registered BAS agent with the TPB and if you provide bookkeeping/BAS agent services only, you are required to apply for a Public BAS Practitioner Certificate. If you provide accounting and related services and if your gross annual income exceeds or is expected to exceed the ATO tax-free-threshold, you are required to apply for a Professional Practice Certificate. Please contact your local IPA office on 1800 625 625 for further information.
- The IPA membership subscription year is a financial year. Members admitted during the financial year will have their membership fees calculated on a pro-rata basis.
- Assessment of your eligibility for membership requires payment of a non-refundable application fee.

Frequently asked questions

1. What evidence do I need to provide?

If you hold an Australian eligible qualification with an accounting major, or if you are a current member of an International Federation of Accountants (IFAC) Member level body, or if you hold a statutory registration with the Tax Practitioners Board (TPB) or/and Australian Securities & Investments Commission (ASIC), no evidence is required at admission as long as you have provided information in your application. However, if the statutory registration is the ASIC Australian Financial Services Licensee (both AFSL and Limited AFSL) and if it is under your entity's name, you are required to provide documentary evidence showing that you are the Responsible Manager. Members admitted under this pathway may be subject to audit as per the declaration made in section H.

If you hold an overseas qualification or Australian qualification with a non-accounting major, you need to provide copies of award certificates and transcripts for assessment of eligibility for membership. Documents that are not in English must be submitted with a certified accredited English translation.

Please also include any official Australian assessment of an overseas qualification, if you have any.

Additional evidence may be required depending on your circumstances.

2. When is a practicing certificate required?

If you offer or plan to offer professional accounting and related services to the public for a fee, you may need to apply for a practicing certificate with your IPA membership. This includes you being a principal, director, partner, shareholder or owner of a business, billing under your own ABN, or acting in a statutory capacity such as an SMSF Auditor. Accounting and related services include but not limited to financial accounting services, taxation, auditing, BAS agent services, bookkeeping, financial and investment advice, insolvency and reconstructions, business or management consulting, superannuation advice, insurance and information technology.

If you are a registered BAS agent with the TPB and if you provide bookkeeping and BAS agent services only, you are required to apply for a Public BAS Practitioner Certificate.

If you provide accounting and related services and if your gross annual income exceeds or is expected to exceed the ATO tax-free-threshold, you are required to apply for a Professional Practice Certificate under the IPA By-laws. Please contact your local IPA office on 1800 625 625 for further information.

3. What fees will apply?

You are required to pay a non-refundable application fee of $160.00. In addition to the application fee, you also need to pay a membership fee. Please see www.publicaccountants.org.au/become-a-member/how-to-apply/fees.

4. How do I advance to Member (MIPA) membership?

You must undertake and complete the IPA Program Stage 1 and the Mentored Experience Program (MEP). Please refer to FAQ 6 and 7 for details.

5. How do I advance to Fellow (FIPA) membership?

You must have been a Member (MIPA) level member for at least 7 consecutive years, and have had at least 10 years relevant work experience (the last 5 years of which must be at a senior level).

6. What is the IPA program and why do I have to undertake the program?

The IPA Program is exclusively to IPA members, delivered by Deakin University. The full IPA Program is made up of two stages, which when completed, will award you a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from Deakin University. The first six units of the IPA Program (Stage 1, Pathway Program) have been designed to accommodate the needs of the Associate members. Following the successful completion of the first stage of the IPA Program, Associate (AIPA) members then advance to the Member (MIPA) level, if you have also completed the MEP. You are then welcome to commence the Deakin MBA as the second stage of the IPA Program. For more information, go to www.publicaccountants.org.au/education/ipa-program/program-structure.

7. What is the Mentored Experience Program (MEP)?

The MEP is designed to provide a structured approach to your workplace learning and ongoing professional development. It is entirely a work-experience based program guided by a mentor and is a support mechanism for your career development. The purpose of the program is for you to work with a more experienced accountant who can guide and assist you in the early stages of your career. In the program you will complete suitable work experience and provide documentary evidence relating to a number of agreed areas of work activity under the supervision of a mentor. The MEP is an important condition for advancement to the Member (MIPA) level. For more information, go to www.publicaccountants.org.au/education/mentored-experienceprogram.
