

MEDIA RELEASE

13 October 2015

IPA CEO AWARDED DEAKIN YOUNG ALUMNI 2015

Institute of Public Accountants (IPA) chief executive officer, Andrew Conway has received the Deakin University Young Alumni Award for 2015.

The award is open to any Deakin alumni member, aged under 40 years old (at the time of nomination), who has demonstrated outstanding success in their professional and/or community endeavours based on:

- Outstanding and significant achievement in their professional or community field of endeavour; and,
- The ability to inspire others in their professional or community field of endeavour.

“We are very proud of Andrew’s achievements and ongoing commitment to our members and the profession,” said IPA Board President, Wendy Leegel.

“This award is another tribute to Andrew’s professionalism and is truly well deserved recognition of his hard work and community spirit,” said Ms Leegel.

END**

About the Institute of Public Accountants

The IPA, formed in 1923, is one of Australia’s three legally recognised professional accounting bodies. In late 2014, the IPA acquired the Institute of Financial Accountants in the UK and formed the IPA Group, with more than with more than 35,000 members and students in over 65 countries. The IPA is a member of the International Federation of Accountants, the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board and the Confederation of Asian and Pacific Accountants. The IPA was recognised in 2012 as Australia’s most innovative accounting organisation and listed in the top 20 in the 2012 BRW Most Innovative Companies List.