

23 – 24 MARCH 2017 WA STATE CONFERENCE

The Vines Resort & Country Club | Claim up to 20 CPD hours

How to Thrive in a Recession

Join us for the 2017 WA State Conference to engage with your professional peers and stay abreast of the latest developments within the accounting world, whilst indulging in the delicacies, food, wine and activities of the Swan Valley.

The conference, held at The Vines Resort and Country Club, will provide you with continuing professional development, extensive networking opportunities as well as a forum to view the latest products and services the accounting profession has to offer.

What's on offer?

- Two and a half days and up to 20 CPD hours of solid, practical and relevant education.
- Enjoyable and valuable networking opportunities, including cocktail function, poolside BBQ and golf tournament.
- A mixture of plenary and concurrent sessions, which include keynote presentations from a wide range of speakers
- Exhibition area with sponsors and supporters providing you with insights to learn about the latest opportunities available in the accounting world.
- Insight into what is happening in WA right now, and how you can thrive in a challenging environment.
- Prominent, thought provoking presentations from leading professional experts and regulators.

Topics will include accounting, tax and regulatory updates and developments, business trends, compliance issues, financial reporting, succession planning, practice management, corporate governance, HR, superannuation / SMSF, financial planning, technology, management accounting, motivational and leadership training.
